

Enfield Public Library

Words on Wheels Application

What is Words on Wheels? Homebound Service is the free delivery of library materials to residents who live in Enfield and who are unable to travel to the library. A doctor or a certified health care provider must fill out the bottom of the form.

Is there a charge for this service? No, this is a free service. However, you must have an Enfield Public Library card.

How does this service work? Homebound deliveries are made once a month by a member of the Enfield Public Library or Friends of the Enfield Library. Materials will be selected for you by the Library staff using your Reading Interest form.

How long do I get the materials for? The loan period is 1(one) month.
